

Laurie M. Betts, M.D.

Program Officer for Access to Health Care

Responsibilities

- Advises and recommends grants for improving access to medical services, a long-range grant giving goal for the Foundation.
- Reviews and evaluates the results of current needs assessment to assist in determining the long-range focus for the Foundation.
- Researches and evaluates the mental and emotional health issues that may impact the community and individuals' quality of life.
- Foundation liaison to Community Health & Dental Care center.

Previous Positions

- Coordinator, Spring-Ford Area School District Health and Wellness Program, 2004-2008.
- Self-Employed Professional Speaker, Women's Health Issues, 1996-2004.
- Doctor, Internal Medicine, Grove Hill Medical Center, 1993-1996.
- Assistant & Associate Professor of Internal Medicine, New Britain General Hospital, 1993-1996.

Other Experience

- Expert guest on Spring-Ford Area School District TV show, Ram Country.
- Expert guest on Pottstown Area Health & Wellness Foundation TV show, Mission Good Nutrition.
- Expert guest on WPAZ radio station.
- Speaker, Women's and Preventative Health, numerous organizations.

Education

- M.D., SUNY Stony Brook School of Medicine.
- Pre-Med Courses, Dartmouth College; UC Berkeley; and San Francisco State University.
- Advanced Foreign Study Program, University of Toulouse, France.
- B.A., Policy Studies/Energy, Dartmouth College.

Membership/Certification

- Pennsylvania Medical License – Current.
- Diplomat of American Board of Internal Medicine.

Contact Information

Phone: 610-323-2006, ext. 29; Fax: 610-323-0047; E-mail: lbetts@pottstownfoundation.org